

2007 National Conference on Injecting Drug Use

Monday 15th and Tuesday 16th October 2007
The Radisson Hotel, Glasgow, Scotland

Organised by Exchange Supplies in association with:

2007 National Conference on Injecting Drug Use
Monday 15th and Tuesday 16th October 2007
The Radisson Hotel, Glasgow, Scotland

What could you present?

In addition to the plenary sessions listed opposite there will be over 30 parallel sessions across two days, addressing the conference themes and other topics of interest. The parallel sessions will be announced on the website in August.

Please consider submitting an idea for a presentation, training session, workshop or poster presentation.

We are also keen to receive submissions of film or video work that can be shown as part of the event's film festival.

All abstracts/film submissions will be peer reviewed and judged on their relevance to the conference. The deadline for abstracts/film submissions is 3rd August 2007. Abstracts can be submitted online from the conference page of our website: exchangesupplies.org

Parallel sessions

In addition to keynote plenary sessions, a variety of parallel workshops, discussions, paper presentations and special-interest fringe meetings are scheduled throughout the event, offering delegates an opportunity to explore in depth a range of issues. Further information on additional presentations and any programme updates will be posted on the website in the run-up to October 2007.

Film festival

Throughout the conference we will be showing a variety of short films made about injecting drug use, naxolone and harm reduction.

Conference website

The National Conference on Injecting Drug Use is a resource for the field. We are committed to developing a permanent and free online archive of conference sound recordings, abstracts, reports, delegate lists, evaluations and Power Point presentations from our conferences. exchangesupplies.org
